Every Footprint Left Behind

I am an athazagoraphobic
My mind is wrapped up
In an obsession
Of being remembered
When I die.

Some deaths
Are more important than others.
When I go
I do not expect a parade.

I fear
Slipping
Into
Oblivion
Having served no purpose

When I die,
Will I have made an impact on the world?
Or will my name
Fade away...
Like every footprint I've left behind.

I
Have
One Chance

To Make My Mark
